Varsity students panic as snake kills 1

Our reporter gathered that this was not the first time a snake had killed a person at the school. A security guard had once lost his life to a snake bite. A male student was lucky as he survived a snake bite at the university soccer pitch.

Some students told our reporter that this latest victim, Zainab, was admitted at the clinic for two days before her condition deteriorated and was rushed home where she died.

"We fear for our lives as we live in danger," a student said.
