Boko Haram insurgents burn houses in Madagali villages

From Kabiru R. Anwar, Yola

■ 2 killed by soldiers

Two Boko Haram terrorists were killed after the group attacked two villages in Madagali, burning houses and killing livestock.

The insurgents attacked Sabongari and Kafin Hausa Wednesday night, causing residents to flee.

A resident told Daily Trust that the attackers who fired guns indiscriminately and torched many houses were engaged by the military and vigilantes who killed two of the insurgents.

This is coming after a similar attack left a soldier and two other people dead in Gulak town, the headquarters of Madagali Local Government Council, about a week ago.
