Suspected members of Bokoo Haram have killed two civilians, burnt down houses and carted away food supplies during a Wednesday night attack in a village in Madagali LGA, Adamawa State.

Residents told Daily Trust that armed insurgents searched for a vigilantes leader in Wanu village, opening fire on three people in the course of the search and killing two while one survived with injuries.

Boko Haram has attacked Madagali villages several times in the last few weeks, resulting in loss of lives and destruction of properties.

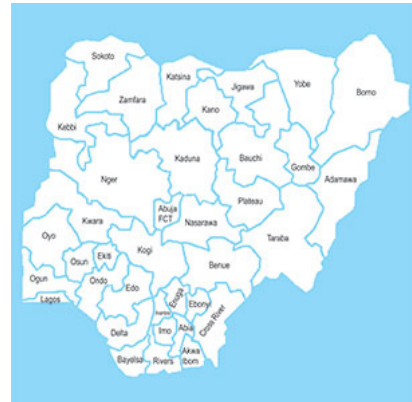

The Chairman of Madagali Local Government Council, Yusuf Muhammad confirmed the attack which he said lasted for an hour, but could not give the number of people killed.

"They looted foodstuff, killed livestock and burnt the village completely," he said.

He therefore called on President Muhammadu Buhari to increase the number of military personnel and equipment for effective control of the surrounding bushes through which the insurgents sneaked into the area which is close to Sambisa.

Major Badare Akintoye Badare, the spokesperson of the 28 Task-Force Battalion, Mubi, could not be reached for comment.
