

Caretaker attacked by lion dies in Kaduna

From Maryam Ahmadu-Suka, Kaduna

The caretaker attacked by a lion at the General Hassan Usman Katsina Park in Kaduna, also known as Gamji Gate, Mustapha Adam, has died.

Adam died around 7:30 pm on Tuesday at the Barau Dikko Hospital Kaduna living behind a wife and five children.

Narrating her ordeal, the deceased's widow Habiba Yahaya said life will never be same without her husband.

She said, "When I heard about the attack I was never the same. I remember on that day before living home he told me he would be going there to feed the animal.

"I told him we don't have food and he promised to go out to get us something to eat. Now he is no more and we still live in a rented house. We really need assistance from the authority."

Mustapha Adam has since being buried at the Bachama Road burial ground in Tudun Wada.
