At least 12 people were killed while a dozen others were injured when people suspected to be insurgents attacked a military base in Kala Balge Local Government Area of Borno State on Thursday, residents said.

The incident occurred at Rann, headquarters of Kala Balge, at about 6:00pm, with sporadic shooting towards a military location.

A resident, Bukar Alhaji, told Daily Trust: "It was sad day for us, they opened fire and forced their way into a military base, we lost 12 people. Two UNICEF staff were taken away, with three military vehicles."
