

Gombe APC congress: One person killed, as police arrest two people

By Haruna Gimba Yaya, Gombe | Publish Date: May 13 2018 3:26PM

facebook
twitter
Google+ Linked in (0 Likes)

At least one person have been confirmed dead in Deba town of Yamaltu Deba Local Government Area of Gombe State during the recently conducted APC LGA congress.

Daily Trust learnt that the deceased, Salihu Dage, died on Saturday following a fracas between youths belonging to different political camps.

A resident of the town, who gave his name as Sani Deba, said apart from the deceased, five other people have sustained injuries as a result of fight that erupted after voting has ended on Saturday.

He said that those that sustain injuries are Abdullahi Umar, 28, Abdullahi Puma, Shu'aibu Deba and two others.

The Gombe State Police Command Public Relations Officer, DSP Obed Mary Malum, who confirmed the incident said Dage was killed and three others injured.

DSP Malum added that the police have arrested two people in connection with the murder who are helping related news

Ebonyi APC Ward/ LGA Elections: There was no parallel congress

APC denies alleged parallel LG congresses in Ebonyi

Ekiti: Fayemi beats Oni, 31 others to emerge APC governorship candidate

APC: Parallel congresses hold in Adamawa, Zamfara, Enugu

New political map for Borno APC, as SAS rejoins party

APC congresses: Yobe to sort out problems Internally

BREAKING! Man shot dead in Lagos APC LG Congress

Lamido, Secondus others berate APC over hunger, insecurity

APC shifts LG congress to Monday in Imo

the police with investigation.

The PPRO said apart
from the incident in Deba, the congress was generally peaceful across the other 10
LGAs.

Ex-Osun Gov,
Oyinlola dumps APC

APC Congress:
Amosun's faction
holds sway in Ogun