The deceased, our correspondent learnt, was left in a pool of his own blood after the beating by the duo who police said are still at large.

Residents were said to have rushed the victim to hospital where a consultant, Dr. Alfa Alhaji Sule, confirmed him dead. His body subsequently released for burial.

The state police spokesman, ASP Muhammad Abubakar Dan-Inna, said the suspects would be arrested in no time and charged to court.

He said from the postmortem conducted, the deceased died as a result of complications from severe beating, vowing that the full wrath of the law would be brought to bear on the culprits.
