was ambushed at Nisama village, Jema'a Local Government Area of the state.

It was further gathered that the policemen were on their way to Jos, Plateau State from Delta, for official assignment when the suspected armed robbers opened fire on their vehicle, a Delta City Bus.

Kaduna State police spokesman, ASP Mukhtar Hussain Aliyu, confirmed the incident, adding that apart from the officer shot to death, none of the police officers was injured.

“They engaged the armed robbers. In the process, one of our police officer, a sergeant, was shot dead and they ran into the bush. But as I’m talking to you now we have already deployed our men to the bush and we are doing everything possible to arrest the perpetrators,” he said.
