Four more dead bodies have been recovered bringing to 53 the number of persons so far that have died from the Jibia flood.

Two bodies were brought from Madarunfa Dam, Niger Republic and two others from a collapsed building at Dan Tudu in Jibia town.

Daily Trust gathered that odour from rubbles led to the discovery.

The information officer of the local government, Saad Muhammad, confirmed this yesterday.

Meanwhile, more relief materials from government and individuals had been delivered to the victims.

The Emir of Katsina, Abdulmumin Usman, who had visited the survivors, donated N1 million; the government of Maradi, 200 bags of rice; Jibia residents in Kano donated clothes.
