Fourteen suspects among the Boko Haram militants that attacked two commercial buses and abducted some passengers along Pulka town of Gwoza Local Government Area of Borno State, were traced to their hideout and killed by the military, it was gathered.

A soldier on the escort team of the travellers was also said to have been killed by the attackers, who ambushed the two buses carrying 23 passengers each. They were on their way to Gwoza from Maiduguri.

Army spokesman, Brig.-Gen. Texas Chukwu, said in a statement that, "Troops of the 192-Battalion of the 26-Task Force Brigade under the Operation Lafiya Dole, in conjunction with the Civilian Joint Task Force neutralised 14 Boko Haram terrorists in a village suspected to harbour terrorists that ambushed a civilian vehicle in Pulka.
