Bandits Tuesday killed one person identified as Abdulkarim Bagoma and injured three others in Birnin Gwari Local Government Area of Kaduna State.

The chairman, Birnin-Gwari Vanguard for Security and Good Governance, Ibrahim Abubakar Nagwari, said the incident occurred along the Birnin-Gwari-Funtua road connecting Kaduna and Katsina States.

Nagwari, in a statement yesterday, said Bagoma was killed on the spot; while the whereabouts of one Ibrahim Mai was unknown.

He said three other people sustained gunshot injuries and were rushed to the hospital.

Nagwari said the bandits, who were avoiding military onslaught in Zamfara State, were relocating to the Birnin Gwari axis to attack people.

“There is no doubt that the armed bandits had resumed their nefarious act of inflicting irreparable loss of lives, injecting fear, grip and sorrow on the people of Birnin-Gwari local government area as a whole and neighboring communities of Niger State.

“We have for long cautioned the security agencies on the need for a pragmatic approach and strategy in their operations of uprooting all armed bandits in Zamfara state to Birnin-Gwari general area.

“Although a significant success were made by the military, police and other security personnel to clampdown on these terrorists, their escape routes along Birnin-Gwari-Kaduna as well as Birnin-Gwari-Funtua road remain porous and all kidnappers’ camps are active.

“We are appealing to the federal government and security agencies hierarchy to change their strategy in their fight with the armed bandits in our communities,” he said.

When contacted, spokesman of the Kaduna State Police Command, DSP Yakubu Sabo, said he would confirm and call back, did not do so as of press time.
