A man who was recently repatriated from Libya identified as Osaze yesterday stabbed a tenant, Chimeze Okereke, to death over disagreements on the use of a bathroom.

It was learnt that trouble started at their 2nd East Circular Road Benin general residence on Thursday when the victim's wife, Martha, wanted to take her bath at the general facility but the caretaker who is a Libya returnee refused and told her to use the broken bathroom.

An argument ensued and Osaze dragged the woman out of the bathroom, drawing the attention of her husband.

A source said when the deceased accosted Osaze, he brought out a knife and stabbed him on the chest. The state police spokesman, DSP Chidi Nwabuzor, said two persons had
