An armed operative of the National Law Enforcement Agency (NDLEA) yesterday shot dead a middle aged man in Kano State.

The incident occurred at the Kano Municipal office of the agency when some angry youth staged a protest against arrest of a suspected drug addict by the operatives.

Confirming the incident, the state's Commandant of the agency, Hamza Umar, said though he was out of the state for an official engagement he was informed about the unfortunate incident

He said, "I was informed that my boys have arrested some addicts and in the process of taking them to the office, one of them escaped and he went and mobilised his colleagues and attempted to attack my boys.
