4 killed in abduction of traditional ruler, wife in Kaduna - Police

The Kaduna State Police Command said on Saturday that the abductors of the traditional ruler of Adara chieftdom had killed four people on his entourage before going away with the monarch.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that the Agom Adara, Mr Maiwada Galadima and his wife were kidnapped at Maikyali village along Kaduna - Kachia road in Kachia Local Government Area of the state. The Command Public Relations Officer, DSP Yakubu Sabo, told NAN in Kaduna that the incident happened on Oct 19, at about 6:30pm.

According to him, some armed men intercepted the convoy of the traditional ruler and opened fire, forcing them to stop.

"In the process, his police orderly and three others in the vehicles were shot dead. The bandits took away the royal father and his wife Mrs Victoria to unknown destination."

He disclosed that a team of policemen led by the DPO in Kachia rushed to the scene and evacuated the victims to Kachia General Hospital.

allegedly fired the shot that killed the victim.

Others were: Saadi Abubakar, 28, from Funtua Local Government Area of Katsina State, who allegedly bought the Barreta pistol used to kill the victim and Oche Ellah, 35, a dismissed police sergeant, from Otukpo Local Government Area of Benue.

Adeniran said items recovered from the suspects included a Barreta Pistol and 19 rounds of live ammunition.

He said Aminu, the principal suspect on July 7, and other suspects still at large stormed the shop of the deceased at No. 2 Jimoh Bolanta street, Kulende Ilorin, Kwara and killed her.
