One killed as PDP, APC supporters clash in Edo

By Usman A. Bello, Benin | Published Date Jan 28, 2019 3:34 AM

A youth leader of the People's Democratic Party in Edo State, Godsdan Etu, was said to have been killed as his party's supporters clashed with their All Progressives Congress' counterparts.

The incident was said to have happened at Ukhomedokha community in Etsako East Local Government Area of the state as a result of a fight between two chieftain of both parties.

Etu, the PDP youth leader of Ward 10, said to have been injured during the fight, later died weekend at a hospital in Auchi.

The state Commissioner of Police, Hakeem Odumosu, however, said the incident was not political.

“What we learnt is that it was a fight between two men and has nothing to do with politics. All the same, we will investigate to determine if there was any political colouration to the killing. We are still investigating.” he said.
