

Killers of Uber driver arrested in Lagos

By Eugene Agha Lagos | Published Date Feb 11, 2019 0:52 AM

Twitter

Facebook 34

WhatsApp

Telegram

More

The Lagos State Police Command has arrested two suspected robbers for killing an Uber driver and stealing his Hyundai Elantra, car with the registration number EPE 676 EC.

The arrest followed a directive from the new state police boss, Zubairu Mu'azu, to the commander of the RRS, Olatunji Disu, that the culprits should be fished out and made to face the full wrath of the law .

ADVERTISEMENT

The two suspects: Humble Peter Robert, 33, and Gideon Achibong, 36, were arrested on Monday, February 4 in Aboki Estate, Lekki, Lagos, while removing the car parts for sale to a scrap metal dealer.

Investigations by the police revealed that Peter – Robert, an ex – convict and a bus conductor, in company of three others, now at large, had three days before his arrest conspired to hijack a UBER car and sell it off.

ADVERTISEMENT

Related

Woman leads gang to rob, snatch cars from Uber drivers

How 2 Uber cab drivers robbed female clients at night in Lagos

One arrested over Uber cab theft

Share this article

Twitter

Facebook 34

WhatsApp

Telegram

More

HOW I BECAME FREE OF HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE