Deputy imam killed at Buhari's victory's celebration in Adamawa

By Kabiru R. Anwar, Yola | Published Date Mar 1, 2019 4:50 AM

A deputy imam died Wednesday from injuries sustained when knocked down by a tricycle in Mubi, Adamawa State, during a celebration rally for President Muhammadu Buhari's re-election.

The victim, Malam Adamu, was the deputy imam of one of the mosques in Shuwari Quarters.

He was said to be crossing the road the incident happened.

"It was not intentional because both the victim and the driver (of the tricycle) were running away from danger. Government should do something to control such celebrations", a resident, Faruk Mubi. has said.
