It was gathered that the herdsmen overran the community and razed some houses.

A native of the area, Engr Adanu, said some members of the community were still missing.

He said the attack came less than 24 hours after the state commissioner of police and some officials of the Directorate of State Service visited the area with assurances of security.

Adanu, who said residents had fled, urged adequate deployment of policemen and soldiers in the area to smoke out the criminal elements whom, he alleged, were still lurking in the area.

When contacted, the spokesman of the state police command, Williams Aya, confirmed the incident.

He said four bodies, including that of a policeman, were recovered from the community.

He said a detachment of policemen, comprising the mobile force, counter terrorism unit, conventional police personnel and men of the Nigerian Army had been drafted to the area to restore normalcy to the area.
