

2 killed, 8 injured in Ogun road crashes

From Peter Moses, Abeokuta

Two people were killed and eight others injured in two separate road crashes on Sallah day in Ogun State.

1 The first crash, which involved an Iveco truck marked KTU 565 XW, reportedly occurred around an AP Petrol Station on the Lagos - Ibadan Expressway, leaving one persons dead and two persons injured.

2 The second crash were said to have occurred around 3:54pm on the same road near Sancrete Quarry, Ogumankin. It involved a Toyota Hiace bus marked LND 626 XR.

The sector commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Clement Oladele, told newsmen in Abeokuta on Wednesday that one person was killed in the second accident, while six were injured.

Oladele blamed the incident on "reckless driving and wrong overtaking."

He said those injured were taken to Idera Hospital, Sagamu; while the corpse of the victim was deposited at FOS Morgue, Ipara.
