

Cultists kill another Rivers varsity student

By Victor Edozie, Port Harcourt | Published Date Aug 1, 2019 4:07 AM

TwitterFacebookWhatsAppTelegram

Suspected cultists yesterday killed a 300-level student of Marine Engineering of the Rivers State University, Nkpolu, identified by his nickname as Montana Million.

The victim, simply identified as Nkpolu, from Etche Local Government Area of the state, was said to have been gunned down on his way to school.

ADVERTISEMENT

This was barely 48 hours after a final year student of the institution, Prince Barisua, was killed by cultists.

ADVERTISEMENT

The Rivers State Police Command's Public Relations Officer, Nnamdi Omoni, confirmed the incident.

He said two suspects had been arrested.

Related

Cultists kill C/River varsity final year student

Cultists kill final year student of CRUTECH

Cultists kill final year student of Rivers University

Download Daily Trust News App

Share this article

Twitter

Facebook

WhatsApp

Telegram