

Police kill 3 kidnappers in Rivers

By Victor Edozie, Port Harcourt | Published Date Aug 6, 2019 6:02 AM

TwitterFacebookWhatsAppTelegram

Operatives of the newly inaugurated Operation Stings in Rivers State on Monday killed three suspected kidnappers at Rumuodgo in Emuoha Local Government Area of the state.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Nnamdi Omoni, in a statement, said that the kidnappers opened fire on a-16 seater passenger bus on its way to Lagos from Port Harcourt, ostensibly to abduct the passengers.

ADVERTISEMENT

He said that luck ran out of the criminals as the operatives of the new security outfit were alerted about the incident and swiftly moved to the scene.

A D V E R T I S E M E N T

He said the bandits, on sighting the police team, opened fire on them and in the ensuing melee, three of the kidnappers were killed as they ran into the bush; while five persons were arrested.

He said that the arrested suspects were helping the police in their investigations.

Related

Police kill 6 alleged kidnappers in Rivers

Police kill 2 suspected kidnappers in Rivers

Police kill 6 alleged kidnappers in Rivers

Download Daily Trust
News App