

Kidnapping: Army creates special operation in S/west

By Bola Ojuola, Akure | Published Date Aug 9, 2019 6:10 AM

Twitter

Facebook

WhatsApp

Telegram

The army yesterday said it had put a special operation in place in the southwest and Edo states to tackle kidnapping.

It said this was to complement the effort of the police in the security of lives and property of citizens.

ADVERTISEMENT

The General Officer Commanding (GOC) 2 Division (2 Div) of the Nigerian, Maj. Gen Anthony Bamidele Omozoje, disclosed this to journalists after the commissioning of a six-kilometer road network in the headquarters of 32 Artillery Brigade, Akure, Ondo State.

ADVERTISEMENT

He said the division which covered the six south west states and Edo had put in place operations across the zone to address the current security challenges there.

Related

Insecurity could affect Nigeria's socio-economic wellbeing — Buratai

Operations Crocodile Smile II successful – Buratai

Download Daily Trust News App

Task forces everywhere, yet insecurity on the rise

Share this article

Twitter

Facebook

WhatsApp

Telegram

Dear Esteemed reader,

As part of our drive to keep improving the content of our newspaper, we are conducting a readership survey to enable us serve you better

Kindly take two minutes of your time to fill in this questionnaire.

Thank you for your time.

Join us on