

Undergraduate remanded for allegedly killing 17-yr-old boy

By . . | Published Date Oct 14, 2019 1:43 AM

Twitter

Facebook

WhatsApp

Telegram

A chief magistrate court in Kano has ordered that a 22-year-old student, Nu'uman Abubakar, who allegedly killed a 17-year-old boy, be remanded in a correctional centre.

Abubakar, a student of Kano State University of Technology, Wudil, is charged with culpable homicide.

ADVERTISEMENT

The chief magistrate, Mr Muhammad Idris, adjourned the matter until October 28, for mention.

ADVERTISEMENT

OVER 5,000 NIGERIAN MEN HAVE OVERCOME POOR BEDROOM PERFORMANCE SYNDROME DUE TO THIS BRILLIANT DISCOVERY

The prosecution counsel, ASP Badamasi Gawuna, told the court that the complainant, Abdulrahman Haladu, who resides in Jan Dutse village, Wudil Local Government Area of Kano State, reported the matter at Wudil Police Station on August 1.

Gawuna alleged that the complainant told the police that the defendant hit his son with a club during a misunderstanding.

He said the victim was taken to the Wudil General Hospital for treatment, where he was confirmed dead.

The defendant, however, pleaded not guilty to the charge.

The offence, he said, contravened Section 221 of the Penal Code. (NAN)

Related

Teenager held over rape of neighbour's 50-year-old mother

Man, 55, remanded over rape of 12-year-old stepdaughter

Court remands man for allegedly stabbing neighbour to death

YEAR 2019

NOMINATE
AFRICAN OF THE