Three passengers have been slaughtered and another critically injured when suspected Boko Haram insurgents attacked commuters along Maiduguri-Damaturu road on Tuesday, security source said.

The incident occurred near Auno along the Maiduguri-Damaturu road on Tuesday evening in Konduga Local Government Area of Borno State, in which three commuters were also attacked with machetes.

Security source told Daily Trust that the victims' car developed fault and was parked when the insurgents attacked, leaving three dead and one person battling for survival.

"They used cutlass to butcher 3 passengers to death while one other person is battling to survive from injuries sustained from the attack.
