Three people died yesterday while 14 others sustained various degrees of injury in an accident around Saapade area on the Lagos-Ibadan expressway.

It was gathered that the accident occurred around 7:15am on Monday and involved a Mazda bus marked AKD 53 XN heading to Lagos from Ibadan when it had a head-on collision with a Ford bus marked RGB 490 XA in a diversion area on the express road.

The Spokesman, Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps (TRACE), Babatunde Akinbiyi confirmed the incident in a terse statement made available to our correspondent on Monday in Abeokuta.

He said the accident was caused by over speeding and reckless driving which resulted into head-on-collision between the two buses, adding that 17 male adults were involved, out of which 14 were injured, and three lost their lives.
