

Pastor dies after deliverance prayers

By Titus Eleweke Awka | Published Date Feb 22, 2020 2:20 AM

A Warri-based pastor who was invited to Anambra State to perform family deliverance prayers and cleansing was found dead in a room after the exercise.

A statement by the spokesman of Anambra State police command, SP Haruna Mohammed, yesterday said Pastor Richard Ifeanyi Obi came from Warri for family prayers only to be found dead in the room he slept.

“On 18/2/2020 at about 4:30pm, one Ikechukwu Uchendu of No. 5 Onuorah Street, Amaenyi, Awka reported at the Central Police Station in Awka that one Pastor Richard Ifeanyi Obi who came from Warri to perform family prayers in his house was found lying lifeless in the room he slept,” he said.

He said following the report, police detectives from Awka visited the scene, photographed the pastor and rushed him to a hospital where he was certified dead by a medical doctor.

ADVERTISEMENT

HOW OVER 5000 NIGERIA MEN HAVE PERMANENTLY OVERCOME TERRIBLE BEDROOM PERFORMANCE DUE TO THIS RECENT DISCOVERY BY MEDICAL CONSULTANTS

Mohammed said his corpse was deposited at the Amaku hospital mortuary for autopsy, adding that the Commissioner of Police, John Abang, had ordered an investigation into incident.

ADVERTISEMENT

Related

Pastor in police net for aborting teenager's pregnancy

How 65-year-old man dies during sex romp with lover in Anambra

Man dies in Benin church