Robbers kill vigilante in Benue

From Hope Abah Emmanuel, Makurdi

Armed robbers on Monday night shot dead a vigilante member along Akpehe road in Makurdi metropolis of Benue State.

Witnesses said the vigilante, who was attracted to an unusual struggle allegedly going on at a shop along Akpehe road about 10:00pm on Monday, went to the scene to find out what was actually happening.

It was further gathered that the deceased had discovered that some armed persons were carrying out robbery and he held one of the suspects stationed at the entrance of the shop. But, the other robbers operating inside the shop were said to have opened fire on the deceased the moment they sensed the danger they were in and immediately escaped from the scene.

The spokesperson of the police for Benue State Command, Catherine Anene, who confirmed the incident, explained that the deceased vigilante went to rescue someone that was being robbed.

Anene added that because the deceased was not armed, one of the robbers who was armed shot him (vigilante) dead after seeing him grab his partner in crime.
