Speaking with newsmen shortly after discovery of the corpse of his son, the father of victim Dr Sulaiman Auwal said the issue started last Thursday, “with my son Abubakar Saddque’s phone number.

I was in the office when the call with his number came in asking me, whether I am saddique’s father. When I answered to the affirmative, the voice said ‘We have kidnapped your son, if you want your son back, bring N10 million to regain his freedom.”

He explained, “They told me to go to inkil and Kangerre at outskirts of Bauchi metropolis to pick my son. We searched at the location but he was not found. It was after the police arrested some of the suspects that through interrogation that his dead body was discovered buried in our neighborhood, he said.”

“He was subsequently certified dead at the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa Teaching Hospital and buried according to Islamic rites.”
