

14 dead, 15 injured as fire razes IDPs camp in Borno

By Olatunji Omirin, Maiduguri | Published Date Apr 16, 2020 16:14 PM

Fourteen internally displaced persons have been confirmed dead while 15 persons sustained various degree of injuries during a fire outbreak at a camp for displaced persons in Ngala local government area of Borno state.

It was learnt that the fire started at about 2:15pm at Ngala IS camp on Thursday.

According to the source, the fire is yet to put off .

ADVERTISEMENT

HOW OVER 5000 NIGERIA MEN HAVE PERMANENTLY OVERCOME TERRIBLE BEDROOM PERFORMANCE DUE TO THIS RECENT DISCOVERY BY MEDICAL CONSULTANTS

“Happening Now:

“Today the 16/04/2020 fire outbreaks at Ngala IS Camp burned 1250 households, unconfirmed. Fourteen confirmed dead, 7 critical injury and 8 minor injuries.

“Still on evacuation and assessment is going on,” the source shared with our reporter.