

Again, bandits kill 3 in Katsina

From Kabiru U. Aminu, Katsina

Bandits have attacked Sabon Layin Galadima in Faskari Local Government Area of Katsina State killing 3 persons and injuring two others.

This came barely two days after the killing of 47 persons in Dutsinma, Danmusa and Safana villages of the state.

The locals told our reporter that the bandits in large numbers on motorbikes stormed the village at about 5 pm yesterday and carried out the operation for over an hour, and went away with several animals, and further burnt down some houses.

"Those killed include a medical health worker at Unguwar Doka village, Sanusi Bello, who arrived in the town at the time of the attack and sadly became a victim. The remaining two others were Safiyanu Abdullahi and Hassan Sani.

"Those injured and presently receiving treatment at the Federal Medical Centre, Katsina are Ibrahim Hassan and Adamu Ibrahim.

"Also this morning at about 11 am, at Unguwar Doka, a man was shot while many others were abducted and later released while trying to get firewood from the forest" the source said. Spokesman for the State Police Command, SP Gambo Isah is yet to respond to inquiries made on the incidences.

It could be recalled that 8 days ago, two persons were reportedly killed in two separate attacks by gunmen in Sabon Layin Galadima village.
