

Armed gunmen also attacked Yankara town and some neighbouring villages in Faskari Local Government Area, killing eight people and leaving 10 others injured. Many other people are missing and feared abducted after the attack which came three days after over 60 people were killed during an invasion of the town and some villages by bandits.

The police were yet to comment on the incidents at press time yesterday.