Troops of Operation Safe Haven yesterday killed two armed robbers in Jos, capital of Plateau State.

According to OPSH'S commander, Major-General Chukuemeka Okonkwo, this followed a tipoff by members of the Rock Haven community in Jos North Local Government Area.

He said the troops swiftly mobilised to the scene and engaged the suspects in a gun duel which resulted in the killing of two of the robbers.

He said the troops recovered two locally fabricated pistols from the robbers whose bodies, he noted, had been taken to the state police command.
