"They came in military and police uniforms and mounted a checkpoint on the bridge leading to the community asking motorists to park.

"Many drivers parked thinking they were security agents, but a provisions store keeper named Ibrahim was shot dead when he attempted to run after he suspected them to be armed robbers.

"Another person was also killed making two," he said.

Several attempts to get comments from the Kaduna State police command failed as the Public Relations Officer, ASP Mohammed Jalige, did not respond to calls to his phone.
