It was further gathered that the accident happened when one of the vehicles dangerously overtook another and had a head-on collision with an oncoming vehicle.

Witness said eight persons died on the spot while the injured were taken to the hospital by the police.

The Edo state sector commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps, Henry Benamaisia, said eight persons died in the accident while four others who sustained injuries are receiving treatment at the hospital.

He said the police carried out the rescue operation, noting that investigation was ongoing to ascertain the cause of the accident.

He advised motorists to exercise caution while on the road, 'especially now that we are at the heart of the raining season.'
