

Man Killed At Tea Joint In Kano

RICHARD P. NGBOKAI, KANO

One Umar Abubakar was said to have been killed following a heated argument at a tea joint in Aisami quarters, Gwale Local Government Area of Kano metropolis.

The diseased was said to have been stabbed with a sharp iron by one Auwal Balarabe currently in police custody.

Man arrested for duping policeman, 14 others

Police arraigns fake soldiers in court

DSP Abdullahi Haruna Kiyawa, the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) who confirmed the report to Daily Trust on Wednesday said that the victim died at Murtala Muhammed Specialist Hospital after being rushed by the police for treatment.

Kiyawa said the commissioner of police said he has directed for discrete investigation, that the suspect would be charged to court for prosecution.