

Okada rider killed in Lagos multiple crash

From Abdullateef Aliyu, Lagos

A commercial motorcycle rider yesterday lost his life in a multiple accident along Idi Iroko area of Lagos.

The accident involved a BRT bus with registration number FST-185XS, a Mazda car with registration number KJA-555XY, and a motorcycle with an unknown registration number.

The BRT passenger bus reportedly lost control in motion leading to a collision with the car and motorcycle. The accident was attributed to "the spilled pig feed."

This resulted in the death of the motorcycle rider identified as Mr. Lawal Musa, aged 35 years, while another adult male who sustained different degrees of injuries had been moved to the hospital.

Daily Trust reports that the state has an existing ban on commercial motorcycles in some local governments including the area where the accident occurred.

The state emergency management agency (LASEMA), which confirmed the development said the deceased has been handed over to his family in the presence of police officers from Anthony division.
