The Anambra State Command of the Federal Road Safety Corps, in a statement, said a total of 13 people, eight male adults, and five female adults were involved in the crash on Monday.

The statement signed by Kamal Musa, the command Acting Public Education Officer, said the victims were immediately rushed to the hospital where four were confirmed dead.

Musa said their remains have been deposited at the morgue.

He did not state the cause of the crashes.

He quoted the Sector Commander in the state, Mr. Andrew Kumapayi, as urging motorists to check their vehicles regularly with a view to ensuring that they minimum safety standards.
