

learners.

Two die in Ondo accident

Hameed Oyegbade, Osogbo

A motor accident that occurred on the Ife/Ilesa expressway in Osun State yesterday claimed two lives and while five persons sustained serious injuries.

The accident which occurred at Osu Junction involved a vehicle with registration number KJA 393 XA.

Public Relations Officer of the Federal Road Safety Corps in the state, Agnes Ogungbemi, who confirmed the incident, said those that sustained injury were rescued and taken to hospital for medical treatment and while the dead were evacuated and deposited in mortuary.

"The five persons who were injured were taken to Obafemi Awolowo University Teaching Hospital in Ife for medical treatment. Two persons died and their remains were taken to the in morgue in the hospital", she said.