LAMI SADIQ, KADUNA

Hoodlums on Wednesday night stabbed to death the 38-year-old son of a former Director General of the Nigeria Television Authority (NTA), Alhaji Mohammed Ibrahim, around Kawo in Kaduna North Local Government Area.

Daily Trust reports that the deceased, Aminu Mohammed Ibrahim, had returned from Kano and was flagging down a commercial transport when hoodlums lurking around the area stabbed him and made away with his phone.

His elder brother, Kamal Ibrahim, who confirmed the incident to Daily Trust said Aminu was recently employed by Kano Electricity Distribution Company (KEDCO).

“He arrived sometime between 8:30 and 9:00pm and while trying to get a taxi, hoodlums stabbed him on the chest, near his heart and made away with his phone. He was taken to hospital and he gave the hospital staff our father’s number and mine to call and inform us but he died while they were treating him,” said Kamal.

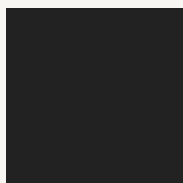

Kaduna State Police Public Relations Officer, ASP Mohammed Jalige, when contacted asked for time to contact the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in charge of Kawo but at the time of filing this report, the information was not ready.
