

Similarly, two persons were reportedly killed in October from an attack by suspected cult members in Maraba/Alalubosa area of Ilorin, the Kwara State capital. The killing was said to be an aftermath of an attack on an #EndSARS protester in Ilorin.

The head of one of the deceased was said to have been severed from his body and deposited at the General Post Office bridge in the metropolis, while the second victim was killed at the Sabo Oke area in the metropolis.