

CITY NEWS

Assistant commissioner of police killed in Calabar

The police in Cross River State have confirmed the killing of an Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP), Mr. Egbe Edum, in the early hours of Wednesday in Calabar. The state command's spokesperson, DSP Irene Ugbo, confirmed the killing in a telephone interview with the News Agency of Nigeria

(NAN). DSP Ugbo said the deceased, who came into the state to see his family, was killed with an axe on the Murtala Mohammed Highway, Calabar. NAN reports that the deceased was the Commander of the Police Mobile Force (PMF) Squadron 73 in Magumeri, Borno.