

EKITI

I Killed Motorcyclist To Raise Money For Farming, Says Suspect

DECEMBER 12, 2020 AT 9:22:37 AM

RAPHAEL OGBONNAIYE, ADO-EKITI

A murder suspect, Ayo Lawal, who killed a motorcyclist in Ekiti State, has said that he committed the crime to raise money to purchase yam tubers for the 2020/2021 planting season.

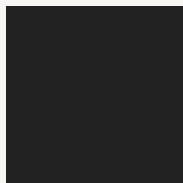

Lawal, who committed the crime at Odo Oro, Ikole Local Government Area of the state in company of one Jimoh Ojo, Sule Abdullahi and one Wonder, killed a motorcyclist, Isaac, on a farm.

- Gunmen invade school in Katsina, students missing
- Danbatta tragedy: How our friends died on Kaduna-Abuja road – Survivor

Isaac, was said to have conveyed the suspects from Ikole to a farmstead at Odo Oro Ekiti, where he was murdered and his body buried in a shallow grave in a farm belonging to Ayo Lawal.

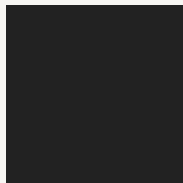

Parading the suspects and six others yesterday, in Ado-Ekiti, the Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Ekiti State Command, ASP Sunday Abutu, said Lawal was prodded by Abdullahi, who is now at large, to commit the crime.

More Stories

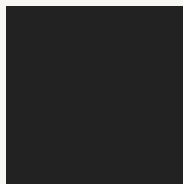

U.S. Begins Distribution Of Pfizer's COVID-19 Vaccine

.

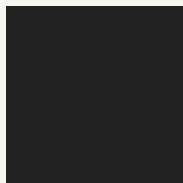

I'm Not Scheduled To Get COVID-19 Vaccine – Trump

.

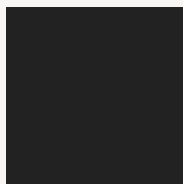

Oil Prices Rise On Vaccine Hopes, Ship Explosion At Saudi Arabia

.

How I Escape From Gunmen – Abducted Kankara Student

ZAHRADEEN YAKUBU SHUAIB...

From California To Kano For Love

SANI IBRAHIM PAKI AND LUBAB...

How Petroleum Ministry Staff Awarded N145m