

Gunmen kill 2 Fulani traders in Southern Kaduna

By Mohammed Ibrahim Yaba, Kaduna | Published Date Feb 6, 2020 5:50 AM

Suspected gunmen have killed two Fulani traders and one local trader in Kaura LGA of Kaduna State, Daily Trust learned.

It was gathered that the incident happened at Zangan Attakar Chieftdom in the Local Government Area in the early hours of Wednesday.

A source in the area said the two traders hailed from Riyom LGA of Plateau State, while the third person, a local trader with whom they are doing timber business hailed from Kaura LGA of Kaduna State.

The victims' names were given as Adamu Bala, Mamuda Adamu, and Zakka Dauda respectively.

HOW OVER 5000 NIGERIA MEN HAVE PERMANENTLY OVERCOME TERRIBLE BEDROOM PERFORMANCE DUE TO THIS RECENT DISCOVERY BY MEDICAL CONSULTANTS

“The victims were conveying goods into a vehicle when unknown gunmen opened fire and killed the two traders on the spot,” the source said.

SURULERE MAN REVEALS NEW HERBAL SOLUTION THAT REVERSES WEAK ERECTION AND HELPS LAST UPTO 48 MINUTES IN BED WITH NO SIDE EFFECTS

It was also gathered that the third victim, Zakka Dauda sustained injuries and later died in an undisclosed hospital.

Contacted, the State Police Command spokesman, DSP Yakubu Sabo, said he was driving and requested for the inquiry to be sent through a text message which he did not respond to at press time.