

5 Killed, Shops Razed In Ibadan

By Jeremiah Oke

Sun Jan 31 2021

No fewer than five residents of Aderogba, Bayerunka, Ogboriefon, all in Labiran, Ibadan South East Local Government Areas (LGA) of Ibadan, Oyo State capital were killed on Saturday.

Residents in an interview with Daily Trust on Sunday lamented hoodlums' attacks, looting of many homes, shops in the area, and setting them ablaze.

- Untold story of Amotekun, herders – clash in Oyo community
- 'I was legally installed as Sarkin Fulani of Oyo'

The crisis that led to destruction of lives and properties was said to have started between hoodlums from Ogboriefon, Bayerunka and Iyana Aderogba, Obasanjo Street, Ibadan.

One of the victims whose house was burnt by the hoodlums, Mrs Modinat Afunleyi, said she has been having a sleepless night since Thursday, adding that she couldn't take her bath nor change her clothes.

The Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Olugbenga Fadeyi, who confirmed the incident said six suspects have been arrested in connection with the attack.

#FireService

DailyTrust

GovMakinde

OyoState

NEWS 9 Days Ago

Traders Grieve As Fire Guts 45-Year-Old Sokoto Market

CITY NEWS 10 Days Ago

Worshippers, Traders Escape As Fire Guts Petrol Station In Nnewi

NEWS 14 Days Ago

62 Shops Affected In Lagos Market Fire

KANO CHRONICLES 21 Days Ago

Family Of 3 Consumed In Early Morning Fire In Kano

CITY NEWS 22 Days Ago

Fire Destroys Nnewi Motorcycle Spare Parts Factory

NEWS 2 Months Ago

Man Dies In Pond

NEWS 2 Months Ago

Fire Razes Sokoto Popular Mechanic Garage

CITY NEWS 2 Months Ago

2 Die In Opened Wells In Kano — State Fire Service

NEWS 3 Months Ago

