

Kidnappers Kill Victim After Collecting Ransom In Edo

File photo

By Usman A. Bello

Thu Feb 04 2021

An America-based Nigerian, Prince Denis Abuda, who was kidnapped recently in Edo State has been killed by his abductors.

Prince Abuda who hails from Fugar in Etsako Central Local Government Area of Edo State was said to have been kidnapped recently on his way to Lagos to board a flight back to America.

- Ganduje's dangerous proposition is a recipe for disintegration
- Kano debars Sheikh Abduljabar for incitement, shuts seminaries

Abuda who was the President of America-Fugar Foundation had come home for the holidays and was travelling back through Benin to Lagos last Saturday to board the flight when he was kidnapped alongside three others.

It was further learnt that family members got to know of the incident on Sunday, after waiting endlessly for his arrival in Lagos.

The kidnappers were said to have demanded N10m ransom, which was paid.

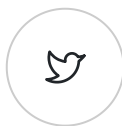

However, after the ransom was paid, only three of the kidnapped persons were released around 7pm on Sunday, while Abuda was killed.

The released hostages told the family members that as they were being marched away, Aduda was killed by the kidnapers.

It was also learnt that his decomposing body was later discovered.

Effort to get confirmation from the state police command was unsuccessful as its spokesman, SP Chidi Nwanbuzor, did not answer calls to his cell phone.

Edo kidnappers

Edo Teachers Refuse To Resume In Defiance Of Court Order

TOP STORY  2 Days Ago

Two Edo APC Lawmakers Join PDP

