2 soldiers killed as bandits attack outpost in Kaduna

From Mohammed I. Yaba,
Kaduna

1 Bandits have attacked a military outpost in Jura village of Igabi Local Government Area (LGA) of Kaduna State killing two soldiers while one soldier and a civilian sustained injuries on Wednesday afternoon.

Residents of the community told Daily Trust that the bandits attacked the outpost at Jura, near Dallatu village around 12:30 pm adding that a military vehicle was equally burnt in the attack before the bandits fled the community.

A Resident of Jura who simply identified himself as Malam said the soldiers were stationed in the area to protect the community following bandits attack in the area in 2019.

He said a civilian from Dallatu village was injured during the attack and the bandits also made away with two motorcycles from the villagers.

When contacted, Deputy Army Public Relations, 1 Division Headquarters Colonel Ezundu Idimah said he could not comment on the incident but directed our correspondent to Army Headquarters.

Kaduna State Commissioner for Internal Security and Home Affairs, Samuel Aruwan, did not also respond to calls and a text message sent to his phone.
