

Gunmen Storm Delta Church, Kill Policeman

Gunmen

By ..

Mon Feb 15 2021

Gunmen on Sunday killed a police officer in a church in Ughelli, Delta.

The spokesman of the state police command, Onome Onovwakpoyeya, confirmed the incident to newsmen in Warri.

- How Angry Youths Barred Oyo, Ondo Governors From Monarch's Palace in Ibadan
- Crisis persists in Ibadan despite closure of Shasha market

“Yes, he (police officer) followed his principal (not named) to the church,” he said.

An eyewitness said the gunmen stormed the Pentecostal church located in Oviri-Ogor Road, Ughelli in the Ughelli North Local Government Area of the state during worship service and shot the victim three times.

The deceased, a police inspector, was said to have been serving at PMF 31, Ogwashi-Uku and was on escort duty at the time of the incident.

“The service was abruptly stopped at about 11.15 a.m. when gunshots rented the air inside the church premises and worshippers scampered for safety.

“It was after the gunmen escaped that some youths summoned up the courage to come out only to discover the police officer in a pool of his blood,” the source said.

The source added that the policeman was confirmed dead at the Central Hospital, Ughelli, where he was rushed to for medical attention. (NAN)

Church Delta gunmen policemen

Valentine's Day: Watch Over Your Children, CAN Warns Parents

NEWS ⌚ 3 Days Ago

Walking In The Steps Of Jesus

SUNDAY SERMON ⌚ 23 Days Ago

Late Sr Francisca Ufoeze (Ehj) And Our Nigerian Dream

SUNDAY SERMON ⌚ 23 Days Ago

Bishop Matthew Kukah: Can A Partisan Tell Truth To Power?

EXCLUSIVE COLUMNS ⌚ 2 Months Ago

Nigerians Celebrate Peaceful, Low-Key Christmas Amid COVID-19

TOP STORY ⌚ 2 Months Ago