

Man stabs brother to death in Edo

From Usman A. Bello, Benin City

A man identified as Kadir has reportedly killed his brother, Suleiman in Edo State over a misunderstanding.

It was gathered that the incident happened on Friday at Auchi, the administrative headquarter of Etsako West LGA.

It gathered that before the incident, Suleiman had had an argument with Kadir's wife over the way and manner he insulted her mother-in-law, which didn't go down well with her husband (Kadir) who was absent during the event.

On getting home, Kadir was said to have engaged the victim, his younger brother, in a brawl that was settled by their mother who was around.

It was further gathered that Kadir revisited the issue later in the day but their mother also calmed the situation.

It was learnt that the suspect who was not satisfied with the settlement later traced the deceased late in the evening and allegedly stabbed him and absconded.

The deceased who was said to have been rushed to the hospital it was gathered died on Saturday morning from the injury he sustained during the attack.

When contacted, the state Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Princewill Osaigbovo, confirmed the incident.

He said the victim died at the ST. Jude Hospital where he was rushed to for medical attention.
