

1 killed, 2 abducted in police affairs minister's hometown

From Abubakar Auwal, Sokoto

Bandits on Thursday raided Dingyadi, the village of the Minister of Police Affairs, Muhammad Maigari Dingyadi, in Bodinga Local Government Area of Sokoto State, and abducted several women.

ASP Sanusi Abubakar, spokesman of the police in the state, confirmed the attack, saying it happened in the early hours of Thursday.

He said one man was killed while two women, including the wife of the late village head of Saketa, were kidnapped.

Abubakar who said the attackers came on motorcycles around

1.am, explained that, "One man lost his life during the attack while two women were abducted. The Commissioner of Police and other top police officers were in the village this morning to sympathise with them and measures have been taken to forestall future attack."