- 30 killed in Nasarawa, Zamfara villages

Daily Trust gathered that residents of the affected village and surrounding communities have relocated to other places.

The member representing Munya constituency in the state House of Assembly, Andrew Danjuma Jagaba, who confirmed the incident, called on the government to beef up security in the area to forestall further attack.

He also called on the people to be calm, assuring swift action from the government.

The police public relations officer in the state, Wasiu Abiodun, could not be reached for a reaction at the time of filing this report.
